Claiming Fares

Healthcare Travel Costs Scheme

You may be able to claim a refund under the Healthcare Travel Costs Scheme (HTCS) of the cost of travelling to hospital or other NHS premises for NHS-funded treatment or diagnostic tests arranged by a doctor, dentist or other health professional.

If you (or a partner) are receiving one of the qualifying benefits (Income Support, Income-based Jobseekers Allowance, Income-related Employment and Support Allowance, Pension Credit Guarantee Credit or Universal Credit) or have a valid NHS Tax Credit Exemption Certificate, you are entitled to claim help with your fares.

If you are not claiming any of these but you are on a low income, you may be able to get help through the NHS Low Income Scheme (LIS). You will need to submit form HC1 to apply for help with the cost of fares. The form can be obtained from NHS hospitals, Jobcentre Plus offices, some GP surgeries, dentists and opticians and online at www.nhs.uk

If your application is successful you will be given an HC2 Certificate (for full help) or an HC3 Certificate (for partial help). For advice on LIS telephone 0300 330 1343.

You should use the cheapest available transport using public transport where possible. You can also claim the travel costs of an escort if it is necessary for you to have an escort for medical reasons. Hospitals and NHS units should have someone to deal with reimbursing fares. At the Royal Sussex County Hospital and Brighton General Hospital go to the Cashier's Office. You will need to show your evidence of benefit (e.g. an award letter) or your Tax Credit Exemption Certificate or your HC2 or HC3 Certificate, your hospital appointment letter or card and your ticket or receipt for the fare you have paid. If you travel by car you will receive payment at the relevant car mileage rate plus unavoidable car parking costs.

If you have already made your journey and want to claim a refund of travel costs you will need to complete form HC5(T). This can be downloaded from the website www.nhs.uk or requested by telephoning 0300 123 0849. A claim form must be received within three months of the date of paying your fares.

Further information is contained in Leaflet HC11 – Help with health costs, which can be downloaded from the website www.nhs.uk
